FOREIGN BROADCAST INFORMATION SERVICE HONG KONG BUREAU

MHK-7001 1 January 1987

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service

THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT : Monthly Report--Hong Kong Bureau--December 1986

I. GENERAL

- A. The death of Hong Kong Governor Sir Edward Youde on 5 December, while on a working visit to Beijing, came as a shock to the Hong Kong community. Live broadcasts of the funeral dominated local television and radio while the media immediately began speculating about the choice of his successor. A replacement is expected to be named in January. PRC media, while noting his positive role in negotiating the Sino-British joint declaration for the return of Hong Kong to the PRC, announced that the choice of a successor is strictly a British matter. The death of Sir Edward is not expected to result in any policy shifts for Hong Kong; however, it is expected to precipitate a government reshuffle and possibly some major restructuring of key posts.
- B. The wave of student demonstrations and calls for greater democracy that swept through a number of PRC cities in December failed to generate much overt enthusiasm among students in the southern provinces which are covered by the bureau. A student procession in Guangzhou on the 20th, which was reportedly held in support of their northern China counterparts, drew only a few hundred students. A 15 December student protest at nearby Shenzhen University did not focus at all on the call for greater democracy but was directed at a proposed tuition increase. The bureau's provincial radios made only passing references to the demonstrations with commentaries emphasizing the need for stability. However, the local Hong Kong press, AFP and the PRC press agencies covered by the bureau supplied timely reporting on developments throughout the month.

II. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial/Editorial

l. The resignation of Chinese monitor to take effect in mid-January, will mean the Chinese section will be down two monitors from its normal strength. The vacant positions are not expected to have any immediate impact on bureau operations largely due to the return of our former television monitor to active fulltime monitoring following the transfer of PRC television coverage to Okinawa Bureau. At least one of the vacant positions is expected to be filled early in the new year.

2. An AFP journalists strike (11-18 December) at the press agency's Paris office in December did not affect the flow of AFP stories into the AFP Hong Kong office. Thus, the bureau's AFP coverage area was unaffected by the strike. As with a past work stoppage locally hired journalists in AFP's Asian bureaus did not participate in the strike. However, the bureau filed a number of internal AFP administrative messages to MOD in which locally hired journalists in Asia and North Africa called for a voice in the strike action. The possibility that AFP's Asian bureaus might participate in some future labor action now seems to be more of an open question.

- JIEFANGJUN BAO, the official newspaper of the Central Military Commission, announced it would be openly published at home and abroad beginning 1 January. Since it began publication in 1956 the newspaper has always been restricted to readers in the armed forces and in party and government organs. A XINHUA report advised that the paper would "not change its original nature of being the official newspaper of the Central Military Commission" once it begins being openly disseminated. It added that its role as a mouthpiece would also not be weakened. The bureau plans on assuming coverage of the newspaper in January. Subscriptions were also placed for Seoul and Okinawa bureaus and NEAD.
- A new Guangdong radio station focusing on economic news began broadcasting on 1 December using the same frequencies as former Guangzhou Guangdong provincial no 2 service. The bureau has surveyed the broadcasts and found them to contain little unique reporting. The new station largely carries repeats of newscasts from Guangzhou Guangdong provincial service.
